MDAS ANNOUNCES INTERIM CEO APPOINTMENT

MDAS is pleased to announce the interim appointment of Steve Rossingh as Chief Executive Officer.

Steve is a proud descendent of the Kamilaroi people and has lived and worked in the Northern Territory for the past 30 years.

A values-based leader, he brings extensive senior executive experience across the private sector and the Aboriginal Community Controlled not-for-profit sector, with a strong commitment to community control.

Most recently, Steve served as CEO of Miwatj Health Aboriginal Corporation for four years. Now focused on short-term leadership roles, he offers a safe and experienced hand during periods of transition.

The MDAS Board of Directors welcomes Steve to the role and looks forward to his leadership during this interim period.
